

Sharon Library Foundation

community · literacy · technology

www.sharonpubliclibraryfoundation.org
info@sharonpubliclibraryfoundation.org

GIVING LEVELS

Donors can make a valuable contribution to the library at various levels of giving. This form of recognition will be permanently inscribed on a prominently-displayed plaque in the new library.

Deborah Sampson

$100,000+

Sharon native and American Revolutionary War hero who disguised herself as a man so she could join the war effort.

Paul Revere

$50,000 - $99,999

Forged the bells for Sharon's Unitarian and Congregational Churches, and fought for Deborah Sampson to receive a military pension.

Leonard Bernstein

$25,000 - $49,999

Composer and conductor who spent his summers in Sharon.

Henry W. Kendall

$10,000 - $24,999

Physicist and Nobel Laureate who grew up in Sharon.

John James Audubon

$5,000 - 9,999

Namesake of Massachusetts Audubon sanctuaries, the first of which was in Sharon.

Sarah Palfrey Cooke

$2,500 - $4,999

1930s and 1940s U.S. and Wimbledon champion who hailed from Sharon.